Arroyo Grande is a city in San Luis Obispo County, California, United States. The population was 17,716 at the 2013 census. The earliest inhabitants of the Arroyo Grande Valley were Chumash Indians, who conducted extensive trade with other Native American tribes at a considerable distance. The first Europeans to see this stretch of the coast were the crew of Portuguese explorer Vasco Núñez de Rodríquez Cabrillo, working in the service of Spain. The Spanish Portolá expedition was the first European visit by land, passing through the area on September 4, 1769. When Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa was established near the site, the Portolá trail became part of the road to the mission.

Financial independence is a state in which an individual or household has sufficient income to live on without having to depend on anyone else, or from some form of employment. Financially independent people have assets that generate income (cash flow) that is at least equal to their expenses. Income you earn without having to work a job is commonly referred to as "passive income". For example, if someone receives $5000 in dividends from their investments, and their own, but their expenses total $4000, they can live on their dividend income because they have enough for all their expenses to live (with $1000 over). Under these circumstances,

Mr. Money Mustache is the website pseudonym of 44-year-old, Canadian blogger Peter Adeney. Adeney retired his job as a software engineer in 2005, spending only a small percentage of his salary and consistently investing the remainder primarily in stock market index funds. He lives in Longmont, Colorado, and co-edits the blog. He argues that most middle-class individuals can achieve financial freedom by spending less money and owning fewer possessions, and that they can live with increased financial freedom and happiness as a result of a decreased environmental footprint. He has described the typical

Joe Dirt is a 2001 American adventure starring David Spade, Dennis Miller, Chevy Chase, Robert Walken, Adam Beach, Brian Thompson, Michael Daniel, Jaime Pressly, Erik Per Sullivan, and Kevin Rock. The film was written by Spade and produced by Robert Simonds. The film follows a "white trash" young man, Joe Dirt, who seems to be a "loser", a failure, an anti-hero. He travels in search of his parents, his friends, and his family are increasingly revealed. He ends up finding a "family" of close friends, people he has never known who respect him. Critical reception was mixed to negative, but the film was a modest financial success. A sequel, Joe Dirt 2: Beautiful Loser, was released in 2005.
